

Building a Friendly Environment in Sports for People with Disabilities.

MS. Jenny Ortiz Cárdenas

Content

- What is a friendly environment for people with disabilities?
- What is a sport place?
- Training for people
 - Different languages
 - Kinds of communication
 - Signs
- Adjustment for places
- What is not useful?
- Think different!

What is a friendly environment for people with disabilities?

- Learning and understanding disabilities.
- All of us in the world are people.
- Providing communication possibilities for everybody.
- Offering mobility for all.
- Sharing the experience for everyone.
- Interacting each other.

What is a sport place?

- Parks
- Courts
- Pools
- Climb walls
- Sea
- Stadiums
- Clubs
- Gym centres
- Recreative spaces in schools, colleges and universities.

Training for people

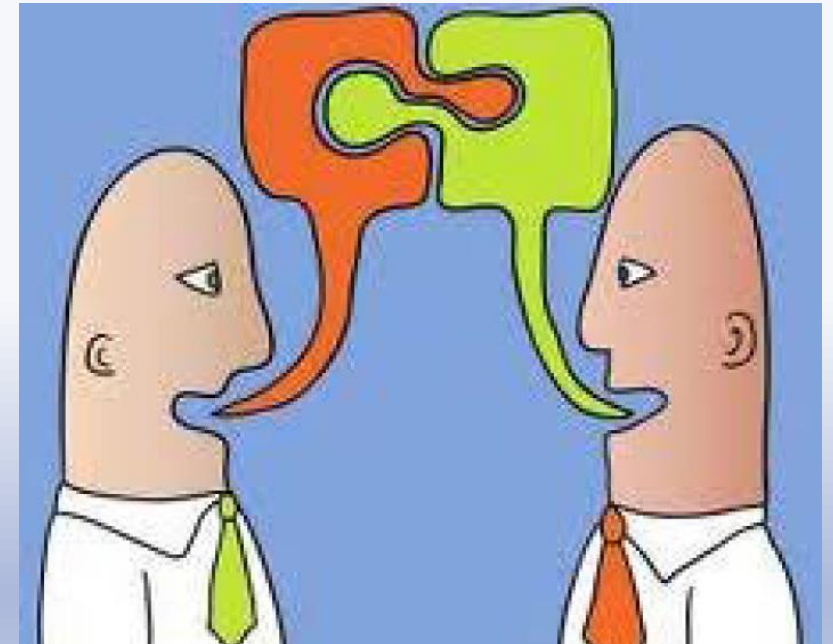

Different languages

- According to the disability we should use the language different.
- Language refers to different kinds of communication codes.
- People understand different according to their learning, own corporeity, interactions and own experiences.
- It is necessary a good attitude to have a good language even though facing unknown disabilities.

Training for people

- Sign language – local –
- Braille
- Icons language – dyslexic people –
- Communication for age ranges
- Language Apps
- Communication skills
- Emergency instructions for each kind of population

Kinds of Communication

Training for people

- Sign language – local –
- Deafblind

Signs

أبجدية الالاء الاصبعى للروف العربىة

ا	ب	ت	ث	ج	د	ذ	ر

ز	ح	خ	ص	ش	س	س	ن

م	ل	ك	ق	ف	غ	ع	ظ

ء	ال	ة	ي	لا	و	ط	ن

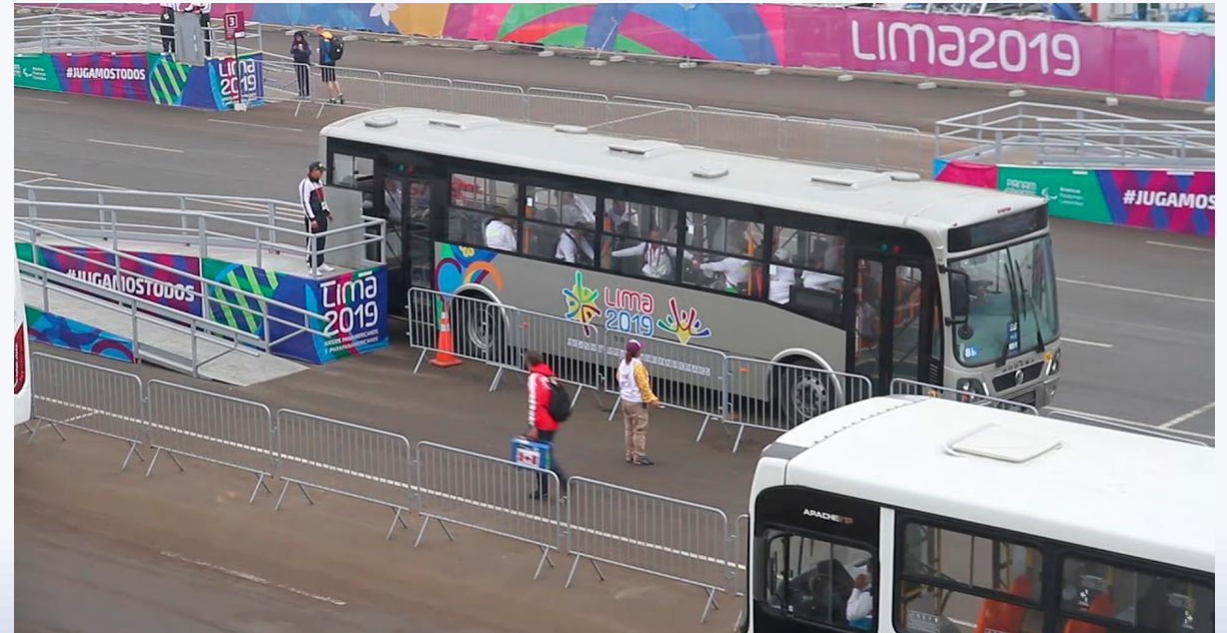

Adjustment for places

- Ramps
- Floor guides for blind people + information
- Emergency signs for dyslexic people
- Alarm with voice guide for emergencies
- Toilets
- Corridors
- Pick up and drop off transportation points
- Parking
- Information desk
- ATMs

What is not useful?

What is not useful?

What is not useful?

What is not useful?

Think different!

Think different!

Think different!

Think different!

Think different!

Think different! Be friendly! Love everyone without barriers!

MS. Jenny Ortiz Cárdenas
e-mail: jocpcd@gmail.com
Instagram: @congresoparalimpico

